Overview and Bio

Dr. Debb Hurlock is a Calgary based Consultant with over twenty years of experience working within the non-profit and education sectors and has supported over 50 organizations and initiatives in Calgary with applied research; evaluation; facilitation; curriculum development and development of organizational strategic frameworks. Debb holds a Doctorate in Educational Research and maintains a blend of community-based practice and academic research. She has worked in a variety of social and equity impact areas, and her current focal area of practice and research is the development and facilitation of gender transformative workshops, curriculums and frameworks for organizations. Since 2011, Debb has been a principal Consultant to WiseGuyz, a gender transformative program offered through the Centre for Sexuality in Calgary, Alberta. Debb has supported the program through evaluation, formative research and is now supporting the scaling and evaluation of the program across Alberta.
